1. Create an empty plane with a size based on input/choice
2. Display the plane
3. Change the layout of plane to label window seats but also more room seats(more space seats)
4. Go into algorithm to fill the plane/seat people a. Find the total number of seats
   b. Continue to let people purchase seats until none are left
      i. First do purchase in economy plus but for people who have a disability, taller, breastfeeding 1. In the purchase economy method -
            a. give people window preference seating based on breastfeeding or if has disability
            b. give taller people the more space seats ii. Randomly choose a number iii. if this number is > 30 1. purchase economy plus
      iv. else
         1. purchase economy block with a random number based on the max family size
   c. Seat people in the economy_sold
      i. Alter this to seat taller, breastfeeding mothers, people with disabilities who need preferred seating
   d. Print out the plane